

11.5. Eesti vähemusrahvuste asualad

- Rootsi asustusala
 - Ruhnu
 - Vormsi, Noarootsi, Riguldi, Osmussaar
 - Pakri saared
 - Vihterpalu
 - Naissaar

- Vene asustusala Peipsi ääres
 - põhjarannik (Vasknarvast Alajõeni)
 - läänerannik (Mustvee, Kasepää vald, Kallaste, Peipsiääre vald, Piirissaar)

-
- An aerial photograph of Lake Peipsi (Peipsi järv) and its surrounding regions. The lake is divided by a dashed purple line representing the international border between Estonia and Russia. On the Estonian side (left), several municipalities are labeled: Mustvee, Kallaste, Alatskivi, Kolkja, Kasepäe, Varnja, Koosa jv, Luunja vald, and Kalli jv. Road numbers 3, 21, 35, 43, and 44 are visible. On the Russian side (right), Pihkva jaärv is partially visible. Other labels include Pärissaar, Mehikoorma, Rapina vald, Rapina, Võõpsu, Veriora, Varska, and Setomaa vald. Road numbers 32, 45, 63, and 65 are also present. The terrain is mostly green, indicating forested areas, with some urban development visible near the towns.

Viimati uuendatud 20.12.2022